

Working Well with REACH

| For Providers & Families | For Emergency Services | For Law Enforcement |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ needs to be contacted as soon as behavior begins to escalate▪ does not replace staff/family▪ supports individuals in crisis by assisting with de-escalation strategies▪ supports staff in managing crisis situations through coaching and mentoring | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ needs to be contacted as soon as a request for prescreening is made▪ does not make decisions regarding TPO criteria; however, their input is valuable!▪ has successfully diverted people from TDO's▪ When unavoidable, can support the person through the TDO process | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ provides training as part of CIT or separate from CIT on REACH and supporting people with developmental disabilities▪ can help with de-escalation and support in crisis situations▪ Encouraging involvement of REACH can help the prevention of future crises |